AN ACT

For the relief of Mary Lane Laycock.

September 7, 1964
[S. 2170]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Mary Lane Laycock, of Washington, District of Columbia, is hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $217.60, representing overpayments of salary which she received as an employee of the Department of Justice for the period from December 9, 1962, through August 3, 1963, following her promotion from grade GS-4 to grade GS-5, effective December 9, 1962, such overpayments having been made in violation of section 802(b) of the Classification Act of 1949 (5 U.S.C. 1132(b)) as a result of administrative error in determining the rate of basic compensation to which the said Mary Lane Laycock was entitled upon such promotion. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing office of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Mary L. Laycock.

76 Stat. 847.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Mary Lane Laycock, the sum of any amounts received or withheld from her on account of the overpayments referred to in the first section of this Act.

No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved September 7, 1964.
